THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT ROCHESTER CHURCH

A record 270 churchgoers filled the Rochester First Congregational Church to capacity, Sunday, to view one of the most memorable Thanksgiving services presented in this area. Introduced for the first time in the Rochester Center church, the unique service has been presented only three other times since the idea originated in a Methodist Church in Norfolk, Virginia.

Noted to be the "nation's most unusual Thanksgiving service" the program followed opening worship and progressed without announcement as youngsters bearing "thankful gifts" to the altar depicted reasons for a thankful Thanksgiving. Against the background or praying hands framed in Fall leaves, with the Rev. Edward F. White, pastor of the church, in the pulpit, the service concluded with Pilgrim costumed young people composing a Thanksgiving "tableau vivant". Other decorations around the altar included a Pilgrim hat, Della Robia tree, arrangements of bittersweet, ivy, mixed fruit bowl and a basket of fruit and vegetables.

Opening the impressive event was the presentations of the Christian Flag and the American Flag by Boy Scouts Greenwood Hartley, 3rd and David Pare, depicting the "gift of Freedom", followed by the "gift of youth and youth leadership" recognition of local youth groups and their leaders by Mr. White. Flag bearers for the scout organizations included Donna Gayoski, Brownie Troop 177; Susan Lawrence, Junior Troop 160; Julie Leconte, Cadette Troop 165; and Bruce Deakin, Boy Scout Troop 31. Adult youth leaders in the community recognized included Green Blanket Riders 4-H Club, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lackey of Acushnet, leaders; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lowe, assistant leaders; Brownie Troop 177, Mrs. Ralph Walker, leader; Mrs. William Deakin, assis-

Recognition was also given to Troop 31, Calvin R. Daggett, scoutmaster; Harry A. Brown and Donald Camara, assistant scoutmasters; and troop committee, Robert Doane, chairman; Joseph A. Chamberlain, Ernest Davoll, Lloyd Gerrish and Alfred Maccarone.

Six babies were baptized during a Baptism ceremony symbolizing the "gift of life" with Mr. White officiating. Baptized were Wendy Lee Silverberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Silverberg; Brett David Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Sherman; David Henry Bassett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Bassett; Samantha May Gifford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice M. Gifford; Matthew Robert Hartley and Dana-Lyn Ruth Hartley, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hartley.

Canned goods were placed near the altar for the "gift of sharing" by the Sunday School children. Mixed vegetables, "gifts of the fields", were presented by Christian Brown, Eric Gifford, Spencer Gurney and Walter Hartley, followed by Susan Bassett, Kathryn Benner, Charlotte Brewer and Terry McWilliams bearing bouquets of flowers for the "gift of beauty".

A large Bible "gift of God's word" was placed in front of the pulpit by Christine Alves and Kathy Charron. Kneeling before the altar, costumed in Pilgrim attire, Barbara Martin, Tyler Brown and Victor Meservey offered the "gift of prayer" posing a living Thanksgiving picture. The service included hymn selections by the choir and congregation. Mrs. William Warburton was organ accompanist. The unusual program was written and developed by Mr. White and directed by Mrs. David Fearing, Sunday School superintendent; Mrs. Drescott Thompson, assistant Sunday School superintendent; and Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Jr.

MUSICAL PROGRAM BY FINE ARTS GROUP

A fine musical program was enjoyed by the Fine Arts Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club last week at the home of Mrs. John W. Ruzicka, with the piano duet arrangement of Hayden's famous "Surprise Symphony", Opus 94, a major work of half-hour length, and demanding genuine musicianship. This it received as interpreted by performers, Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Ruzicka, accomplished pianists as well as club members. "Chanson Triste" by Tchaikowsky was presented as an encore. The club is fortunate in having such talents.

World news of music, brought into focus by Mrs. Frederick E. Reynard followed the performance, and gave emphasis to the world premiere of the Schuller opera, "The Visitation" based upon Kafka's novel "The Trial". When it opened in Hamburg, Germany 50 curtain calls were applauded and a standing ovation of 20 minutes. Of local interest is the fact that the composer heads the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston. Mrs. Reynard, noting other musical fields, mentioned automation as it applied to music.

Mrs. Ruzicka was assisted as hostess by Mrs. Albert D. Furnans. Fifteen club members attended. In February and April other music meetings will be held, according to Mrs. Charles W. Adams, music co-chairman with Miss Lydia LeBaron Walker, fine arts chairman. Leadership for groups, vocal or instrumental, is solicited, and talent sought, to pursue the expression of interest for further events.

The Fine Arts Group is inclusive of music, not separate. The next regular Fine Arts meeting will be on Wednesday, December 7th, details to follow.

JUNIOR GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Junior Grange will hold its bi-monthly meeting Friday night, November 25th. The lecturer's program will be "Turkey Night". Joseph Alves and Mark Harris are refreshment hosts.

A most successful traveling food sale was conducted by Mark Harris, Mark Breton, Joseph Carson, Joseph and John Alves, assisted by Mrs. Carson as driver.

ARTICLES FOR FAIR

Items for the Christmas Fair at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church may be brought to the church on Monday night, November 28th.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE MEETING

The theme of Hilltop Friendship Circle's last meeting was "Welcome Back Home to Marian". Mrs. Hatton, who was the first president, has returned to Mattapoisett from New Hampshire.

After luncheon, which featured a birthday cake made by Mrs. Florence Dexter, honoring the president, Mrs. Ruth W. Shaw, routine business was conducted.

Plans were made for a Dutch Treat luncheon in observance of Christmas and the birthdays of four members which occur in December.

The January meeting will be held January 17th in the Sunday School rooms, weather permitting. If unfavorable weather, the group will meet with Mrs. Shaw on Water Street.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC FESTIVAL

On Sunday, December 11th, at 3:00 P.M., the Regional Civic Chorus will present a Christmas Festival, to be held in the auditorium of the Old Rochester Regional High School. This event is open to the public and there will be no charge.

Featured in the program will be the Chorus, the Regional Symphonic Band and the Wanderers, presenting varied selections of Christmas music. The audience will also participate in singing some of their favorite Christmas carols.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS AT CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Elsie B. Freeman of Wakefield brought "A Treasury of Christmas Decorations" to members and guests of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club last Thursday afternoon in the parish hall of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church.

Using such traditional items as greens, cones, fruits, leaves and ribbon, and many unusual items for Christmas decorations, such as plastic bags, spools, cup cake papers and ball fringe, Mrs. Freeman showed many interesting and attractive decorations which could be made by the homemaker.

Wreaths, Christmas trees, centerpieces and wall decorations were among the items displayed by Mrs. Freeman. She gave detailed instructions for each decoration to an interested and inspired audience.

Mrs. Frank Oxnard, president, opened the meeting with the invocation, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given by Mrs. Roger Kelley and Mrs. Robert Smith, respectively.

Mrs. Louis Corey, first vice-president and delegate, gave a detailed and interesting report of the State Federation's Fall meeting.

Several new members were announced by Mrs. Luen Johnson, membership chairman, and those present were given a copy of Topics, the State Federation magazine.

Recommendations of the executive board, presented by Mrs. Johnson, and voted by the club, were $10.00 to the New England Home for Little Wanderers, $5.00 to the International Scholarship of the State Federation, $10.00 to the Mattapoisett Historical Society of the Carriage House Fund, and $25.00 to be used for a needy family in Mattapoisett at Christmas.

Mrs. Walter S. Jason and Miss Marie Jeanne Gendreau poured at the attractive tea table which had as its centerpiece a large wooden bowl filled with gourds, bittersweet and greens. Sandwiches, assorted cookies and brownies were served by Mrs. Charles Adams and her committee.

A food sale to benefit the scholarship fund was held with Mrs. Giles Dunn and Mrs. Clarence Fountain in charge.

Service committee. She also urged all the members of the Grange to bring in articles for a Penny Sale for December 1st, proceeds to help with her community projects.

A partial report was given on the 70th anniversary of the Grange to take place January 19th, 1967. An invitation was read from Rochester Grange to be guests on December 7th, when the Old Colony Past Masters' Association will furnish the program.

The election for the offices of overseer and Pomona was held. Otto Kellish was elected overseer and Corrine Lawrence was elected Pomona. They were installed by Past State Deputy Gilbert Collins, assisted by Herbert LaFleur as marshall and Edward Alves and Christine Bence as regalia and emblem bearers.

The lecturer's program opened with a piano selection by Walter Caswell, his own composition of Crazy Kat, with Wallace Caswell at the drums.

Solos by Pat Brennan, Everybody Loves Everybody and Harvest Moon, were enjoyed, with the members joining in on the chorus of Harvest Moon.

A Thanksgiving Tableau was held, with Christine and Susan Bence giving thanks to a well earned harvest at a table laden with fruits and vegetables. A solo, Bless This House, was by Walter Caswell.

Those who took part in the scavenger hunt collection brought in the articles. Corrine Lawrence and Marguerite Vaughan were the winners.

Mrs. Jennie Toolis received the lecturer's prize. The lecturer announced the next meeting on December 1st would be Neighbors' Night. The program will be by the New Bedford Chapter of DeMolay.

The lecturer's program closed with piano and drums, and solo by Mrs. Brennan. The Thanksgiving turkey was awarded to Mrs. Ellen Heuberger, with the ways and means mystery package going to the master, Susan Bence.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith were refreshment hosts and served delicious cakes and coffee. Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wilson will be hosts for the December 1st meeting.

FTA ELECTS OFFICERS

The Future Teachers Association of Old Rochester Regional High School recently held an election of officers. Presiding for the ensuing year will be: Janeen Smith, president; Bonnie Reynolds, vice-president; Susan Doane, secretary; Christine Bence, treasurer; and Jo-Ann Wright, historican.

Advisors this year are Mr. Vernon Taylor and Mr. Thomas Lanman. Membership to the organization is open to any student in grades 10, 11 and 12, who is interested in exploring teaching as a career.

The purposes of the chapter will be to learn about the teaching profession, its opportunities, responsibilities and its important role in democracy. To explore our own interests and abilities in relation to the various fields of teaching. To cultivate in ourselves the high qualities of personality, character and leadership which are essential in good teachers. To learn how and where teachers receive their preparation, the cost, the scholarships available, the number of years required, and the certification of requirements and standards, and finally to study the lives and influence of great teachers.

This year the organization will have special speakers and will visit elementary and secondary schools and teachers' colleges. The Future Teachers have offered to assist the faculty and to tutor other students. It is hoped the members of the Future Teachers will benefit from the activities scheduled for the coming months.

have used various print-making devices to create decorative wall patterns, woodcuts, etc. And more recently the linoleum block, stencil, and silkscreen have been utilized to achieve original Christmas cards, posters, placemats and numerous other useful items.

The public is invited to join in these classes held Wednesday evenings at 8:00 P.M. Perhaps you will be able to create your own original textile patterns using the versatile silkscreen which can be printed on paper or fabric. And for anyone interested in the art of poster-making, this course is a must!

Years Ago

By C. M.

125 Years Ago -- 1841

The year 1841 saw what were perhaps the peak years of both tragedy and prosperity in Mattapoisett's shipbuilding era.

The tragedy consisted of the never-ending deaths and sickness of the epidemic that started the previous fall. It continued its frightful toll, especially among children, until well into May. Dr. Robbins' Diary is filled with entries: "Our sickness continues fearfully;" "there have been four deaths this week;" "The sickness appears to be increasing;" On the last day of February he totalled up:

"There were seventeen deaths in Mattapoisett in November and December, and in January and February the same number, seventeen." Sixty-eight deaths was an extraordinarily high toll for a village of a little over 100 families. And even that figure gives no impression of the tremendous number of sick people, very sick people, who suffered terribly but finally got well. Dr. Robbins visited the sick every day, sometimes all day long. He made such entries as: "Visited sick families, four in one, three in another, etc.

Finally, on April 28, he was able to write: "Our epidemic seems to have subsided."

In the meantime, all during the winter and spring the whaling business had gone on as usual. In February the Brig Edward had arrived from Boston, purchased there to join the Mattapoisett whaling fleet. In March the Brig Mattapoisett sailed whaling. In April the Brig Edward sailed.

So did the Brig Chase, but she soon met her end. Let Captain Snow tell it: April 6, Brig Chase sld. whaling. April 13, A severe snowstorm, wind N.East, snow fell 12 inches deep. April 13, Brig Chase wrecked, crew saved, carried into Newport.

And so on into May, June, and July. Besides all the merchant vessels bringing materials for the shipyards and sailing off again for more, the whalers kept arriving and departing; the Brig LaGrange, the Bk. Elisabeth, the Brig Two Sisters, and the Brig Annawan. The Annawan was brand new; this was her maiden voyage; and her master was Captain Thomas Lambert who lived in the Figueiredo house on the hill on Acushnet Road.

But the peak of prosperity for the year came from the sudden outburst of building in the ship-

FELLOWSHIP MEETING

John Ross led the worship service at the meeting Sunday night of the Medius Altus Fellowship of Mattapoisett Congregational Church. Gail Statter was welcomed as a new member.

It was decided to make furniture for a doll house for the South End Day Nursery in New Bedford.

Tentative plans were made for a skiing trip this winter. A dance will be held December 10th in the parish hall.

Game night was observed and volley ball and dodge ball were played.

WHIST PARTY

There will be a public whist party in the Mattapoisett Grange Hall Monday, November 28th, at 8 P.M. with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Furtado and Mrs. Jennie Toolis as hosts.

OIL BURNERS ADJUSTED
Comprehensive burner service contract covers annual check-up and adjustment plus other cost-saving services

OUR COMPREHENSIVE BURNER SERVICE CONTRACT helps guard you against heating worries. And it can lower heating costs these three important ways:

1. By making sure your burner is cleaned and adjusted for peak efficiency—to help give you maximum heat from every gallon of fuel.

2. By catching little troubles before they can become big ones. A small adjustment or repair in your heating system now may save you many dollars later on.

3. By insuring you against unexpected repair bills. This makes sure you always get heat.

For complete details about our burner service contracts—and about our many other services—call us today at the number below.

yards. On May 31 Dr. Robbins wrote: "Our shipyards very active. Five ships and a brig on the stocks." And on June 11: "There are six ships and one brig on the stocks in our shipyards."

In addition to these seven vessels, another ship was built in the second half of the year, and the Brig Elizabeth was hauled out on the ways to be repaired.

The brig mentioned by Dr. Robbins was built down at Cannonville at the yard of Nathan Barstow & Son. She was named the Annawan, the second vessel so named, the first having been lost with 14 of her crew in a white squall off Bermuda only two years before. This second Annawan later changed to a bark, sailed from Mattapoisett for years, Captain Seth Freeman of upper North Street acting as her agent, until at the time of the Civil War she was sold to New Bedford and continued her whaling from there until she was wrecked in the 1870's.

But to get back to the other six vessels, the six ships Dr. Robbins mentions. There were lined up on the stocks along the present waterfront: the Edward Cary 353 Tons and the Harrison 371 T. in the Barstow yard (foot of Pearl Street); the Monticello 358 T. and the Potomac 356 T. in the Holmes yard (Shipyard Park); and the David Paddock 352 T. and Narragansett 398 T. in the Meigs yard (present home of Mr. and Mrs. David Todd).

What a sight this must have been! What a ceaseless, fascinating activity all day long!
